Subject: RE: Monsanto Company's February 16, 2015 Petition to Cancel Glyphosate Registrations of Repar-Glypho, LLC

Dear Ms. Goerke and Mr. Rosenblatt:

On behalf of Monsanto Company (“Monsanto”), we are in receipt of Repar-Glypho’s (“Repar”) letter to you dated August 30, 2016, in further response to Monsanto’s Petition to Cancel Repar’s glyphosate registrations.

Repar’s latest correspondence to the Agency raises a host of irrelevant matters, and attempts to cloud the only issue for EPA’s determination—did Repar abide by the payment terms of its data compensation agreement with Monsanto. That issue is undisputed—Repar does not deny that it has been in breach of the payment obligations of the parties’ agreement for nearly two years. Accordingly, EPA should now cancel Repar’s glyphosate registrations without further hearing. FIFRA Section 3(c)(1)(F)(iii), 7 U.S.C. Section 136a(c)(1)(F)(iii); and, 40 CFR Section 152.99(c)(2).

In the event there is anything in particular in Repar’s August 30 correspondence to which you would like Monsanto to respond, please let us know. Otherwise, we respectfully request that Monsanto’s 19-month-old Petition to Cancel be granted and Repar’s glyphosate registrations cancelled at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Donald C. McLean
